Dear SAES 7th graders,

This summer we would like you to read at least five NEW books from at least three different genres. You are welcome to read physical books, read on a device, or listen to audiobooks. This list provides recommendations based on literature that students have often enjoyed.

You must log the five books you read and bring your list to class on the first day of school. You must read books you haven't read before! You DO NOT have to log your reading each night, but you should be prepared to talk about your novels during the first couple of days of class.

Best,
The English Department

Please note that the grade recommendation below is based on content, not on reading level.*
