

FOURTH GRADE SUMMER READING

All fourth graders must read two of the following books or two window books of their choice.

How Tía Lola Came to (Visit) Stay by Julia Alvarez

Miguel's magical aunt comes from the Dominican Republic to Vermont to help his Mami after Miguel's parents separate.

Dragons in a Bag by Zetta Elliott

Jaxon is sent to help an old woman he thinks is his grandmother. He finds out she's a witch, and she needs help delivering baby dragons to a safe place.

Brendan Buckley's Universe by Sundee Frazier

Brendan loves science, asking questions and finding answers. When he meets his estranged Grandfather by accident, he finds out they share a love of geology but not the color of their skin. Why did his mother never speak about his grandfather?

Pie in the Sky by Remy Lai

A funny story about Jingwen and his move to a new country, his annoying little brother and their cake-baking disasters.

A Dog Called Homeless by Sarah Lean

Cally knows she can see her dead mother and a wolfhound who appears with her mother. When no one will believe her, Cally stops talking.
